Serves More Families — Tells More News

OLD POINT COMFORT — A genuine fire hydrant — "reserved for clients only" — lends a comfortable feeling to the patients of Dr. Robert Burns, of 7572 North ave., Lemon Grove. Burns, who operates the L.G. Veterinary Hospital, rescued the fireplug from the obsolete department of the local fire department, installed it and painted it red. Firemen attach hoses to yellow hydrants here. For dog's use, the color matter's little, Dr. Burns said. Dr. Burns' little patient who agreeably posed with the device, is Fang, a 6-months old Pomeranian mixture. Certainly, Fang is a boy. No self-respecting lady dog would be caught dead posing with a fire hydrant.

Deputies Jail Plasterer On Weapons, Prowl Charge

Sheriff's deputies arrested Herbert Roy Meyer, 30, plasterer, who said he lived at 2507 Haven dr., Lemon Grove, after they found him on industrial property at 6610 Federal blvd. at 10:45 p.m. Sunday night.

He told Sheriff's deputies R. G. Jacobs and G. L. Ringwald that he was searching for nails and lumber, so as to pursue his calling as a plasterer. He also told the officers that he had parked his car at Federal blvd. and San Miguel st. to conduct his search. Officers said they found his car stuck in a ditch alongside a building in the industrial section.

Officers found a .22 6 - shot revolver in his car as they checked it for newly acquired plastering material. Admitting ownership of the gun, Meyer allegedly admitted to previous convictions for prowling and traffic violations.

He was transported to County Jail by Deputies Jacobs and Ringwald and booked on charges of prowling and possession of concealed weapon.

ANNIVERSARY — Country Sheriff's Deputy Hal Johnston, of Lemon Grove, starts his 12th year here as local police officer. His income is paid half by the county with local merchants who want individualized police service paying the balance. Purpose of marking Deputy Johnston's anniversary is to call attention to the confidential business file Deputy Johnston is putting together. It will contain the home and private numbers of all local firms. The file, to be kept in the local sheriff's office, will permit easier contact from the police in event of a night time emergency in an individual's place of business.

TAX BILLS REVAMP URGED BY H. BONEY

Henry Boney, speaking Tuesday at a luncheon meeting of the La Mesa Kiwanis, urged the county to make its property tax invoices more understandable.

Boney, a candidate for second district supervisor, demonstrated his point by presenting tax invoices from counties throughout the state. "Most counties itemize amounts by listing each taxing agency," Boney said. "This allows the taxpayer to know exactly what he's paying for. Los Angeles, Orange and Sacramento Counties show, on the invoice, the tax for schools, libraries and port, fire and water districts. San Diego presently lumps all these items together in one figure."

Boney, who held a small plurality over the incumbent in the primary, faces a run - off election Nov. 3. He has stressed the need for review and moderization of county administrative procedures.

Fewer Business Vacancies PacTel Manager Says

Streeter King, manager of PacTel's La Mesa-Lemon Grove-Spring Valley telephone exchange presented an optomistic picture of local business as measured by increases in telephone lines and stations.

He said the monthly average of $400,000 billings from local facilities is up about $5,000. "We have lines to many local business addresses that have been vacant a long time until recently," he told members of the Lemon Grove Men's club. "Most of the increase comes from expanded service to present firms," he said.

King explored the rate case his firm is involved in. As he was speaking the State Public Utilities Commission in San Francisco was denying PacTel's request for a rehearing on an order of PacTel to reduce rates $40 millions, retroactive over a two-year period.

The company grossed $963 million last year for a return of 6.75 per cent. The Commission would cut the earnings back to 6.3 per cent, King said.

The company pays one per cent to Bell Telephone for research. "PUC wants this practice stopped," King said. "If we had to provide our own research it would be considerably more expensive," King said.

The Men's Club members, in later action, voted to return to Michael's cafe for regular weekly meetings.

The program this week will be provided by California Highway Patrol Captain Roland Gautche. His topic will be "The Important Role Driver Education Plays in Traffic Safety," according to program chairman John Bridger.

LADY WINS $35 PRIZE

Mrs. Hazel Armstrong, a resident of the Costa Bella trailer court, was adjudged winner of the weekly contest sponsored by Lemon Grove business firms.

Mrs. Armstrong was awarded $35 when her entry in the weekly sweepstakes won the prize.

Entry blanks may be obtained by any local shopper at stores displaying a placard of the Lemon Grove Treasure Chest. The contest is held every Saturday at 11 a.m. at the lemon landmark. Contestants must be present to win and the competition continues until a winner is chosen.

The chest this week is $400.

Sjogren Heads School Board

The Lemon Grove school board, in a meeting of routine affairs Monday night, conducted its annual organizational election and named Robert Sjogren president of the board; A. J. Long, vice president; Lyle Stumbaugh, clerk, and Byron Netzley, scertary. Sjogren was also selected to represent the board on the County Committee on School District Organization.

The board approved participation in the California Interscholastic Federation insurance program which provides up to $6,000 injury coverage for students.

The district's adjusted budget was approved for publication. It dropped to $1,999,664 after adjustments brought the total down $35,000.

The board again set the second and fourth Mondays of each month as meeting dates for the coming school year, with adjustments for holidays and the cancellation of a July, August, and December meeting.

ARSON SUSPECTED IN SERIES OF FIRES

Arson is suspected in a series of small fires plaguing residents on Hillside dr., just north of St. John of the Cross Catholic church, in Lemon Grove.

The latest fire occurred at 3715 Hilltop Tuesday when flames consumed a small shed on the property. The building was completely destroyed but the financial loss was negligible, acording to L. G. Fire Marshal Ray Carmody.

A shed at 3707 Hillside burned July 6 and a grass fire was extinguished by firemen June 16. Marshal Carmody said the grass fire was started by a 6 - year old boy.

Several good clues are being checked out, Carmody said.

In their letter the boys said, "Den 4, Pack 318 put on a puppet show on Summer Safety. We sold tickets for 10 cents and we also charged for refreshments. We know this isn't much money but we did our best to help." The boys gave the show on July 2 at the home of den mother, Mrs. Kenneth Davis, 2630 Nina rd., Lemon Grove.

Committee Forming To Get Auditorium For Local College

A citizen's committee to raise funds to build a Grossmont College Community Auditorium is forming

The prospective campaign was disclosed at a meeting of the Grossmont College Development Foundation July 8. The foudation is a relatively new organization whose function is to receive and promote gifts to the college.

On a motion by O. W. Miller, the foundation trustees voted to "endorse and support the formation of a citizen's group for fund raising for the auditorium on the junior college campus."

Dr. Samuel Sloan announced the anonymous donation of $1,000 to the foundation and reported that the Women's Committee of the Grossmont Community Concert Association had presented $3,220 toward the auditorium fund as a result of the "World's Fair House" ticket sale. The El Cajon Lioness Chapter contributed $100 to the foundation.

The next quarterly meeting of the foundation will be Oct. 14.

SUBSCRIPTION TOTAL MOUNTS AS 48 MORE PEOPLE SUBSCRIBE

Listed here are 48 more subscribers to this publication who are taking part in the project to help buy playground equipment for retarded children.

The new list brings to 232 the total who have subscribed since the campaign commenced last month. The goal is 2,000. Soliciting has been done only in Spring Valley so far. It is expected that 1,000 subscribers will be obtained from there and another 1,000 from Lemon Grove.

Part of the proceeds from the project goes to Angels Unaware, the East County Chapter of San Diego Association for Retarded Children. The east county facility is at 1374 East Lexington ave., El Cajon. Retarded children not qualified for public schools are trained here.

Donations for each subscriber range from $3.50 down to ten cents. $3.50 is given when a new subsciber takes a two-year subscription without being solicited. Or when anyone obtains two, new one-year subscriptions from their neighbors or friends.

A list of those for whom we make a contribution appears in the columns of this newspaper weekly. The list runs about 10 days behind because it takes Ed Boyd, the campaign manager, about that long to process these new subscribers.

The cost of subscription is $3.50 a year and the newspaper is delivered by mail.

Parker, 44, will bring his wife and five children here to live. He has been working at the Scout for the past several weeks.

SAN DIEGO (CNS) — The County Planning Commission Friday overruled a staff recommendation to grant a reduction in side yard setback from 10 feet to 3 feet to Raymond W. Smasal of 10032 Cristobal dr., Spring Valley.

Smasal said he wanted to put a roof over a patio slab and enclose it with screening. He said the slab is existing.

The commission decided the variance would do no harm but did make the condition that only screening be used to enclose the patio.

A New Political Personality

A dashing new personality flashed across the political scene when Governor Mark O. Hatfield of Oregon made the keynote address Monday night at the GOP Convention in San Francisco.

Gov. Hatfield, who looks much like Walter Pidgeon in his youth, is only 42 but is serving his second term as governor.

He has long since attracted the attention of political buffs, but the nation had its first chance to view him as he gave the keynote speech Monday.

His presentation led Dave Brinkley, the news commentator, to observe that Hatfield, at 42, could afford to wait for his political opportunities.

His speech was understandable and he averted the use of double - headed statements that promise something to evryone. As far as we can ascertain, he is the first spokesman for either party that categorically castigated the extremists. He said Monday: We must overcome the bigots who spew forth venom of hate. Then, wonder of wonders, he named three of the groups in this category - Communists. Klu Klux Klan and the John Birch Society.

The GOPs had disavowed the left extremists and the Democrats had disavowed the right extremists, but until now, neither party had condemned both extremes.

The Democrats are meeting in August. If they too will renounce all extremes, many of us who believe in Americanism will be able to flag our faltering hope that our republic can survive perpetually.

On Laws, Taxation & Donations

As an editor, we ask many direct questions and often we get some pretty good answers. We got an unexpected one last week when we asked Bill Waddington, a veteran sand and gravel firm operator, why he quit business earlier this year. He is far too young to retire, but that is what he said he was going to do.

To explain his reasons for quitting he gave us a clipping which he said was taken from a construction magazine a while back. The author, apparently, is unknown.

The article had to do with a letter that a small-business man had received from a late paying customer. The letter:

Dear Sir:

In reply to your request to send a check, I wish to inform you that the present condition of my bank account makes it almost impossible, my shattered financial condition being due to

All Are Welcome

Local Witnesses In L.B. Meeting

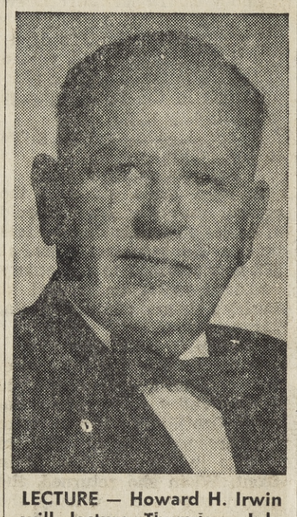
All meetings of Jehovah's Witnesses in the Spring Valley-La Mesa congregation will be transferred to the Long Beach Arena and Auditorium, for the period Juy 16-19. This announcement was made by Edgar A. Flinn, presiding minister of the local congregation.

Jehovah's Witnesses stress regular meeting attendance both in the congregation and at assemblies, Flinn said.

"The Bible informs us that Jehovah God and Christ Jesus are present at meetings of the Christian congregation and they invite us to assemble. Regular association stimulates our application of Bible principles in everyday life. This acts as a bulwark to combat the general moral decay prevailing worldwide today. We all profit by the mutual exchange of encouragement given.

"Attendance at the 'Fruitage of the Spirit' assembly in Long Beach is a continuation and extension of Congregation instruction. Understanding of Bible truths with which we are already acquainted will be increased and further imbedded in our minds.

"An attendance of over 16,000 is expected for this four-day district assembly. Baptism will take place on the beach adjacent to the arena," Flinn said.



LECTURE — Howard H. Irwin will lecture Thursday, July 23, at First Church of Christ, Scientist, La Mesa. Breaking through limited concepts of God will be the theme of the lecture which will be given at 8 p.m. at the church, 8262 Allison ave., La Mesa. Title of the lecture is "The Dynamic Theology of Scientific Christianity." Irwin has been a Christian Science practitioner since World War II.

'Life' Is Subject Of Sunday Services

"I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of the Lord" —this verse from Psalms is part of the Golden Text that will introduce the Bible Lesson to be heard at Christian Science churches this Sunday. The subject is "Life" and begins a series on names which belong to God.

INNER SPACE

By CAROL BAKER

Today the problem on the homefront is inner space. How can one convert outer space to inner space? Books on science fiction may have the answer for Martians, but here on planet earth, we need to go to an authority on home conversion. In times of change and exploding events, we are all looking for space that opens into larger space, for space is now the precious commodity — living space, measured in square feet, not light years! Living space—for comfortable and pleasurable living.

Ward C. Yocks, your reputable, dependable, state licensed alteration contractor, is your authority when it comes to home conversion. He knows how to handle flexibility in the home, how to make one room do the work of two, — how to stretch two rooms into one larger room, how to convert your garage. Ask him about room dividers, folding partitions and convertible walls. You'll find that Ward C. Yocks, of 9324 Pebble Beach Drive, in Santee, has the answers for your living needs.

ARE YOU UNIDENTIFIED?

Proper identification is always important especially in the Telephone Directory. Maybe your name is easily misspelled. Like SCHNEIDER, SNYDER, and SNIDER which one are you? Do your friends know you as Bud and you are listed as James? You could miss an important call.

Now how about the wife, she, too, could miss a business or social call because she could not be identified from her husband's listing.

Even your teenagers or older children living at home may feel the need to have their listings in the directory. This will enable friends to easily reach them, they won't miss calls regarding social, school and club activities which are important to their development.

An additional residence listing in our Directory can be yours for only 35c per month. This is a very small amount to pay when you consider the benefits obtained from this service. As we are in the process of preparing the new Directory, this is an excellent time to consider additional listings for yourself and your family. You may contact your Telephone Representative at 466-3201, and we will be more than happy to complete your order.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Great White Father of Lemon Grove Printing Press:

My name is Susie Kicks - a Hole - in - the - Sky - With - Her - Left - Foot. I am a little Indian girl who is the Female Cheer Leader of the Chula Vista National Little League All-Stars baseball nine which is to play your Lemon Grove Little League All-Stars at 5 p.m. Friday, July 24th at the Vista LaMesa Little League diamond.

I need your advice, Great White Lemon Daddy. I want to go to that ball game and cheer my Little Chula Vista braves on to victory over your Little Lemon Grove scalpers. But I don't know how to get to the Vista LaMesa field on my roller scooter form my Chula Vista reservation. Will you please tell me the best highway route?

I have another problem, old Paleface Daddyo. My uncle, Bends Elbow at Clancy's Bar and Grill, says he will mount his piebald pinto pony and go to that game with me. But only on one condition. Uncle Bends Elbow needs a glass or two of Lucky Lager Vitamins Juice during each baseball game he attends, and wants to know if the Little League Ladies Auxiliary running the refreshment stand at the Vista LaMesa diamond that afternoon of Friday July 24th serves any drinks stronger than Essence of Bubblegum. Or, if not, Uncle Elbow says he will take his wapum to the nearest Stockade Tavern.

I hope to see you and lots of Lemon Grove palefaces at that big game at Vista LaMesa. whether or not my Chula Vista braves return home with your team's scalps.

Very truly yours,
SKAHITSWHLF

Lester Loble, Teen-age Judge

Before juvenile Judge Lester H. Loble of Helena, Mont., defendants between the ages of 12 and 17 are tried in open court for all traffic offenses and for any felony offense that would be punishable by imprisonment in a penitentiary if the offender were an adult.

Reporters are present, and detailed stories appear in the press. Most defendants found guilty of serious crimes are committed to the state training school. Those who use violence in the commission of their crimes are committed without exception.

Does this stern treatment get results?

In the 18 months after adoption of Montana's open-court law (which was pushed to enactment largely through Judge Loble's efforts), felony cases in his court decreased by 49 percent and traffic cases by 75 percent.

The certainty of punishment, plus full publicity, makes crime something less than a frolic for juvenile offenders and their parents. If nobody gets off easy, if the mantle of secrecy is removed, the incentive to abide by the law becomes very strong indeed.

Judge Loble does not believe that "juvenile offenders are sick, have no free will, are made worse by punishment, are gravely damaged by publicity, and can't choose between right and wrong unless a psychiatrist guides them."

On the contrary, he believes emphatically that responsibility should be fixed on the wrong-doer and on the parents who should have guided him.

This is where the value of publicity comes in .Millions of people in this country apparently have little or no sense of obligation to uphold the law ,but can be frightened into obeying it if they know their transgression is to become public knowledge.

HAPPY SHOPPERS — Who wouldn't be happy with a filled food cabinet . . . and all for free? That's what happened last week to Mrs. Charles Blackburn, of 1941 El Prado, Lemon Grove. It was part of a local market's promotion to prove whether a discount market acutally saves. With her is her son, Jim, a member of the Tigers, a Lemon Grove Little League team. Busco Nestor photo.

Housewife Saves Money — But It Costs Market $50 To Prove It

It was a surprised housewife who was paying the cashier $45.54 at Bradshaw's Lemon Grove Discount Market when the manager, Kenneth Slauth, made the unusual proposition.

The surprised housewife was Mrs. Charles Blackburn, wife of a tile contractor and mother of two husky youngsters.

The proposition was simply this: go to another market, buy item for item and ounce for ounce what was bought at Bradshaw's See how much difference there is and in whose favor . . and Bradshaw will foot the entire bill.

First Slauth took an affidavit concerning the items Mrs. Blackburn bought, weight right down to the ounce, and prices to the penny.

Armed with the list - and Slauth's money (he gave back the money she spent at Bradshaw's), she went to the other market. She matched the list meticulously. Then she paid the bill at "X Market" and went home rejoicing that next week's foodstuff was on hand and the money too. How near to heaven can a homemaker get?

How did Mrs. Blackburn fare? Here's how she tells the outcome of her free shopping excursion.

"The manager had proved his point. The bill at the other market came to $51.98. If I was skeptical about discount market prices before, I wasn't after the second shopping trip. Imagine, saving more than $6 on a week's groceries!"

"I thought they were kidding when they offered to pay me to shop somewhere else. I haven't shopped anywhere but at Bradshaw's in Lemon Grove for the last year because I'm happy shopping there. It's one of the cleanest markets I've ever seen. I used to be a market demonstator and learned what to watch for.

"I like the whole place. It's wonderful. The clerks are helpful. I like a certain type of butter that Bradshaw's didn't stock but they order it special for me. Me, I'm a permanent Bradshaw customer.

Slauth said there may be other tests made like the one tried by Mrs. Blackburn. He said the object is to show that any family shopping at Bradshaw's all year will be getting the last six weeks of food free.

Sanders and Christianson Team In Directing Russ Play

"Love is a Bubble", a new and original musical with book and lyrics by Richard Applegate, young San Diego newspaperman, and score by Cliff Reckow, a Hollywood composer, will be offered at Russ Auditorium August 6 and 7.

Lawrence Christianson, widely acclaimed as director of the San Diego Civic Youth Orchestra, and the Mt. Miguel High School Band, is general director of the production, assisted by Robert Sanders, who gained considerable praise for his direction of Mt. Miguel's production of "South Pacific" earlier this year.

The play is being produced by Arthur H. Salzman, long time New York theatrical press representative, and for years associate of Ted Hammerstein, cousin of the late Oscar Hammerstein. Hammerstein is now considering the musical for later New York production.

All profits of the production will be donated to St. John's Episcopal School, Chula Vista, to be used for the indebtedness of the school.

Tickets are on sale at Thearle's Box Office.

A talented cast has been assembled, including Carolyn Hinshaw, remembered for her portrayal of the feminine lead in Starlight Opera's production of "Around the World in 80 Days"; Howard Roberts, a bariton with an unusual flair for comedy; Rusty Pitsinger, a talented young actor with a background in summer theatre productions in the Middle West.

There will also be an expertly choreographed group of dancers.

Kabuki Players Arrive For Sea World Shows

Three Kabuki players have arrived in San Diego from Japan to perform at Sea World's Japanese Village.

Five 20-minute performances of the classic Japanese Kabuki dance drama will be presented daily until Sept. 30, according to Kirk Nonaka, vice president and general manager of Murata Pearl Co. of California, sponsor of the Japanese Village.

Each of the performances also includes Japanese folk dances.

The five shows are presented about every hour starting at 1:40 p.m.

The trio is headed by Yoshi Hanayagi, a prominent Japanese teacher of Kabuki. Other performers are Miss Yoshitamaki Hanayagi and Miss Yoshieiko Hanayagi. Nonaka explained that professional Kabuki dancers adopt the last name of their teachers.

LEMON GROVE REVIEW — SPRING VALLEY BULLETIN
7834 LESTER 469-0101

IN AN ACTUAL LEMON GROVE SHOPPING TEST MRS. CHARLES A. BLACKBURN, 1941 EL PRADO BOUGHT IDENTICAL FOODS IN 2 STORES

"I PAID $5.84 LESS IN CASH AT BRADSHAW'S

AT THE OTHER STORE

I PAID $5.84 MORE TO GET 10 PAGES IN STAMPS"

YOU CAN'T BEAT PROOF! And here are the facts one woman discovered about Bradshaw's discount prices.

Mrs. Blackburn did her normal shopping at our Lemon Grove store. Then, at our request, she bought identical foods in another nearby super-market on the same day.

"The difference in prices", she says, "was startling. At Bradshaw's, I paid $5.84 less in cash. At the other store, I paid $5.84 more to get 10 pages in stamps. I'd rather have those big Bradshaw savings any day!"

Why do savings add up so fast at Bradshaw's? Because over 5,000 items are discount priced there every day!

"PAID LESS FOR U.S.D.A. CHOICE BEEF...THAN FOR THE KIND THE OTHER STORE SELLS"

This comment of Mrs. Blackburn's brings up a point worth noting. The meats you buy discount priced at Bradshaw's are the highest quality meats available at any prices. Bradshaw's sells no beef except government-graded "U.S.D.A. Choice" beef — and Bradshaw's is the only discount super-market that sell this top grade beef exclusively! And with all meats discount priced . . . every day . . . you can serve delicious meals throughout the entire week.
